Agreement and Signature

Intellectual Integrity: Commonly described but not limited to the following: Any document, logo, application, form etc., created by an employee, at or for the Tillsonburg District Craft Guild/Station Arts Centre is owned by/becomes property of The Tillsonburg District Craft Guild/Station Arts Centre. As well, all material, as expressed above, produced while in our employ, will be copied, and maintained to the Station Arts database, project file etc.

Intellectual Integrity is more formally described as per Copyright Laws of Canada as - "work made in the course of employment is covered under Ownership of Copyright, Item 13.3 as follows:

- Where the author of a work was in the employment of some other person under a contract of service or apprenticeship and the work was made in the course of his employment by that person, the person by whom the author was employed shall, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, be the first owner of the copyright, but where the work is an article or other contribution to a newspaper, magazine or similar periodical, there shall, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, be deemed to be reserved to the author a right to restrain the publication of the work, otherwise than as part of a newspaper, magazine or similar periodical.

Marginal note: Assignments and licences

The owner of the copyright in any work may assign the right, either wholly or partially, and either generally or subject to limitations relating to territory, medium or sector of the market or other limitations relating to the scope of the assignment, and either for the whole term of the copyright or for any other part thereof, and may grant any interest in the right by licence, but no assignment or grant is valid unless it is in writing signed by the owner of the right in respect of which the assignment or grant is made, or by the owner's duly authorized agent."

Copyright Laws of Canada

By submitting this application, I affirm that the facts set forth in it are true and complete. I understand that if I am accepted as a volunteer, any false statements, omissions, or other misrepresentations made by me on this application may result in my immediate dismissal.
